PENINSULA
MEDICAL SCHOOL
UNIVERSITIES OF EXETER & PLYMOUTH

Leading through the mist with a compass; implementing evidence into primary care.

Dr A Homer and Professor P Foxall

Sicily October2009

Sicily Statement 1992

1. Translation of uncertainty into an answerable question
2. Systematic retrieval of best evidence available
3. Critical appraisal for validity and applicability
4. Application of results in practice
5. Evaluation of performance

PENINSULA
MEDICAL SCHOOL
UNIVERSITIES OF EXETER & PLYMOUTH

Change

‘A process through which people and organizations move as they gradually come to understand, and become skilled and competent in the use of new ways’

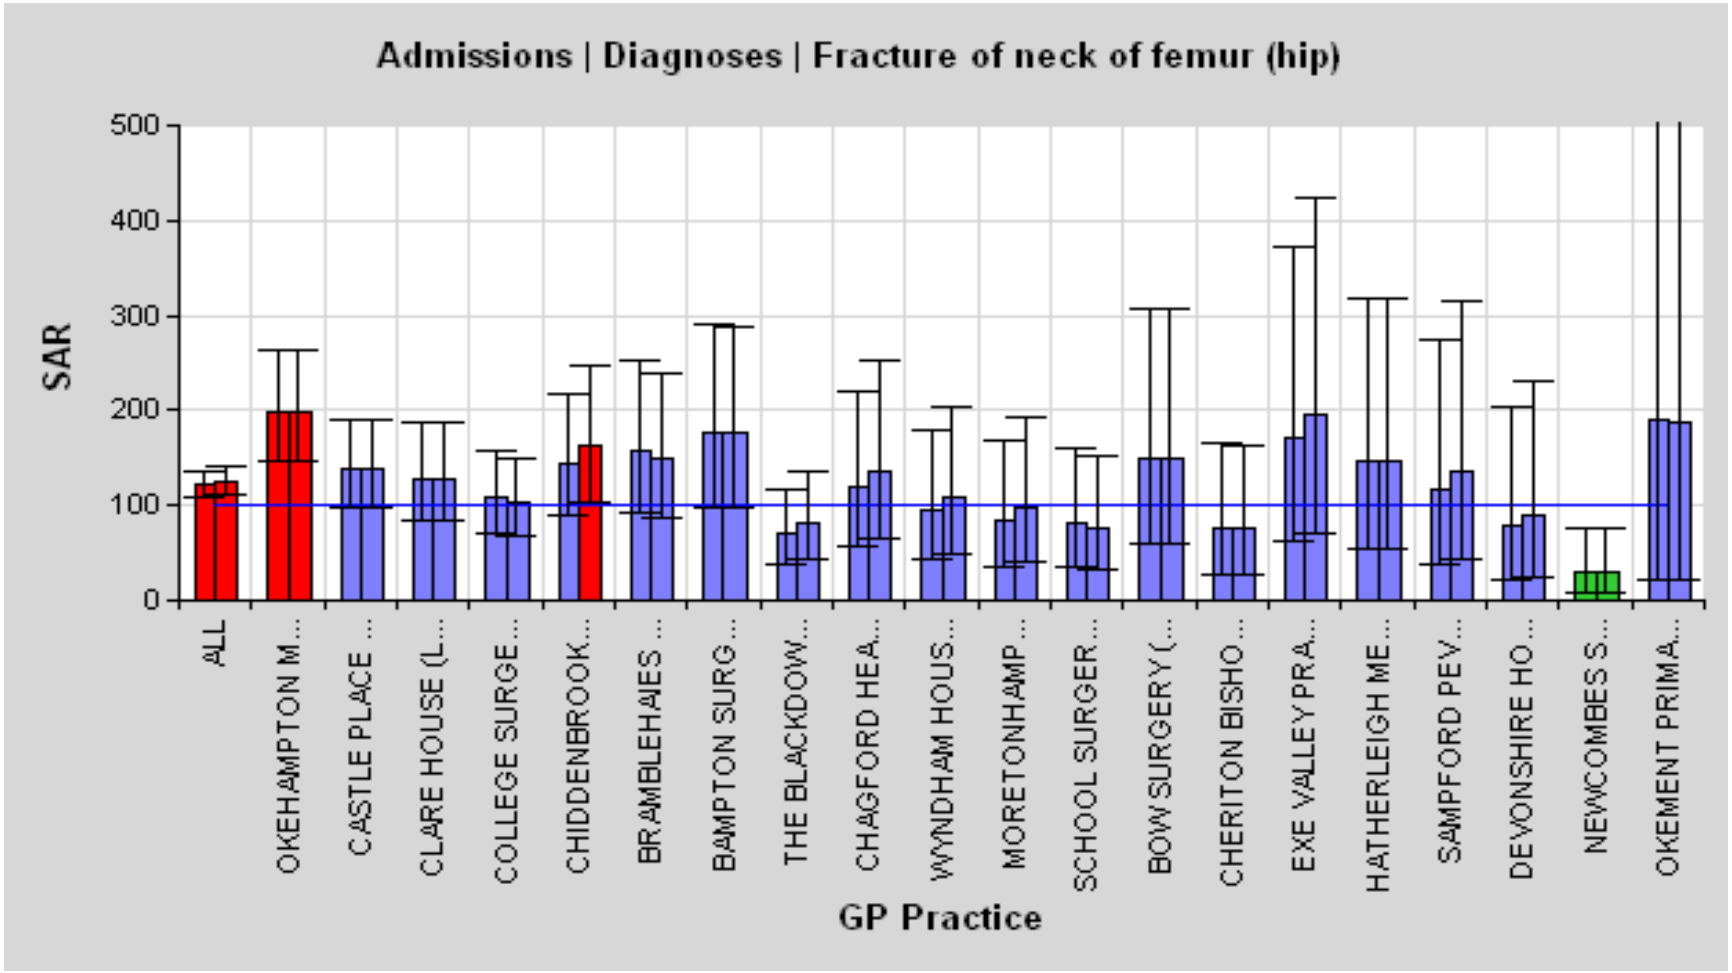
G Hall & S Hord Implementing Change 2001

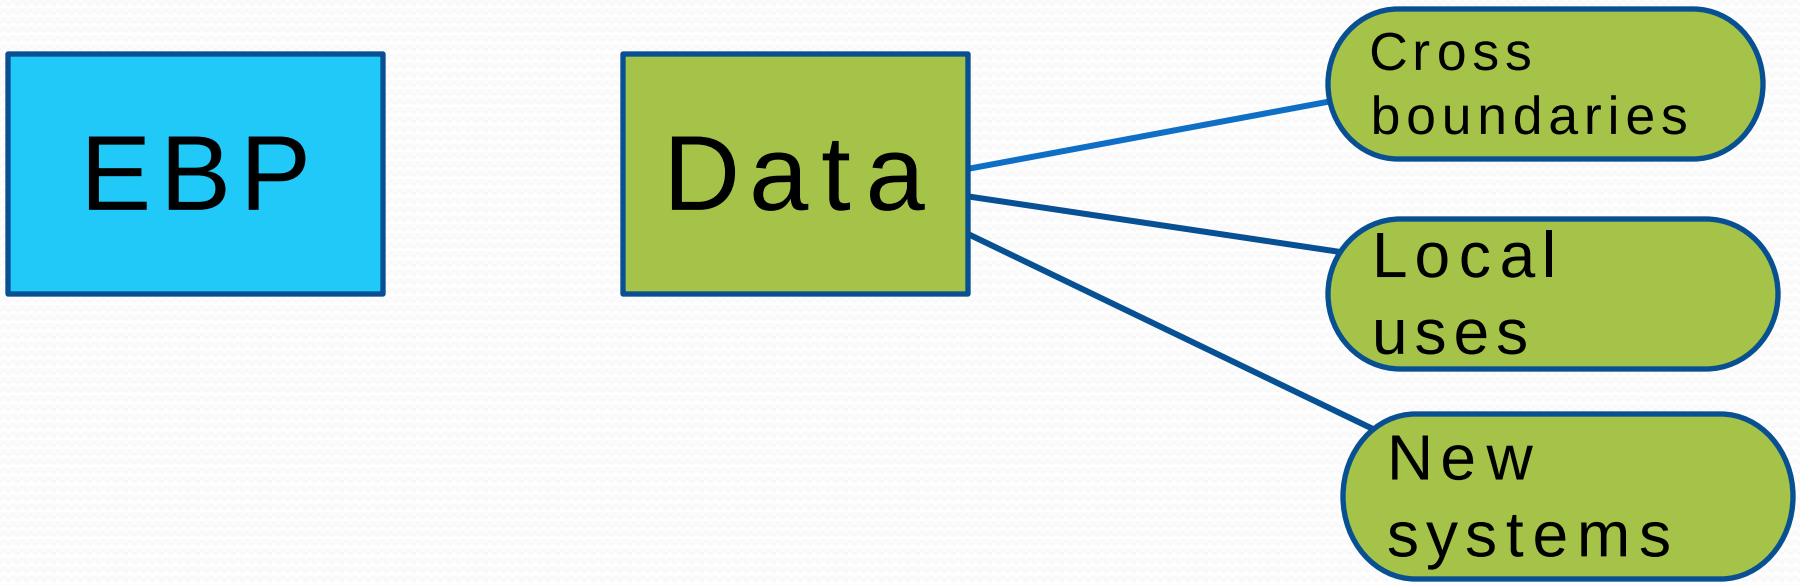
PENINSULA
MEDICAL SCHOOL
UNIVERSITIES OF EXETER & PLYMOUTH

Falls and hip fractures

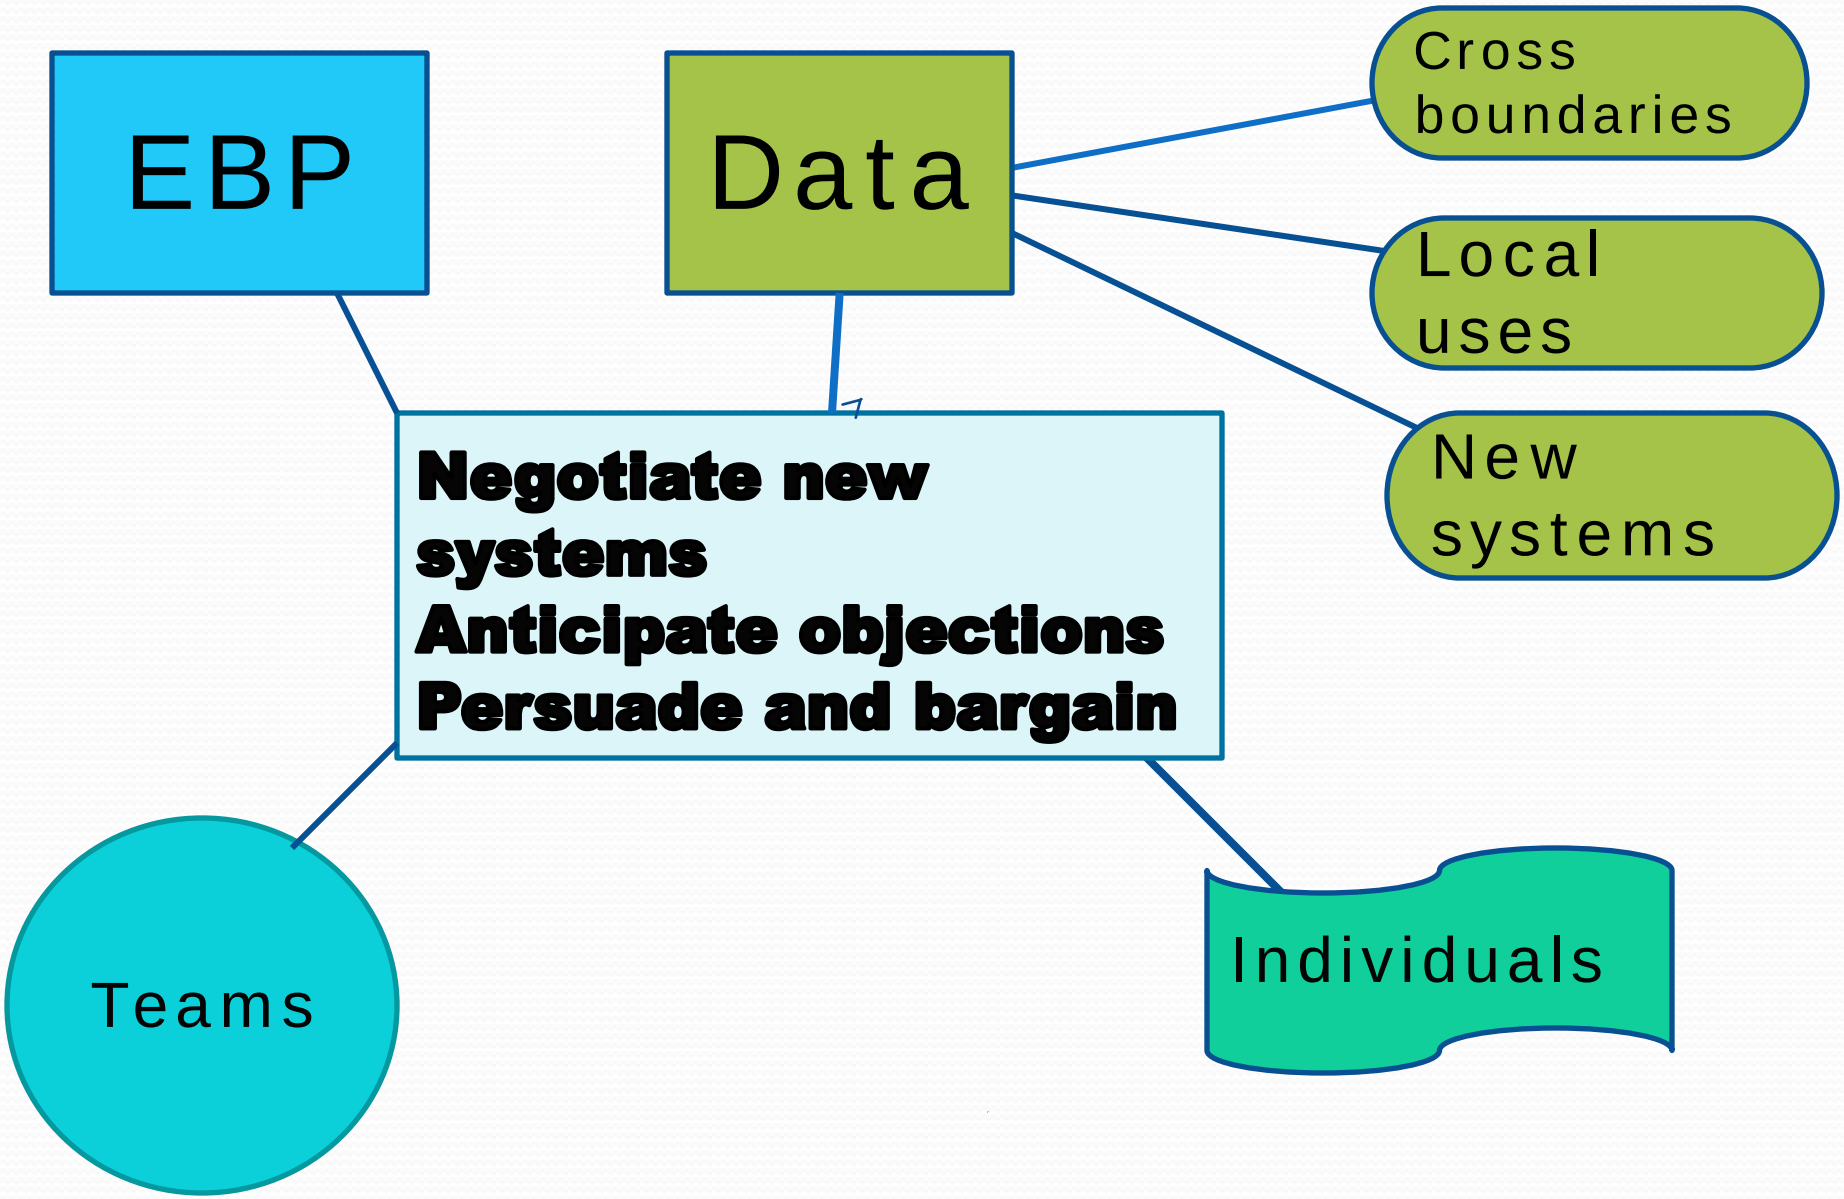
PENINSULA
MEDICAL SCHOOL
UNIVERSITIES OF EXETER & PLYMOUTH

Dr Foster 2007-8

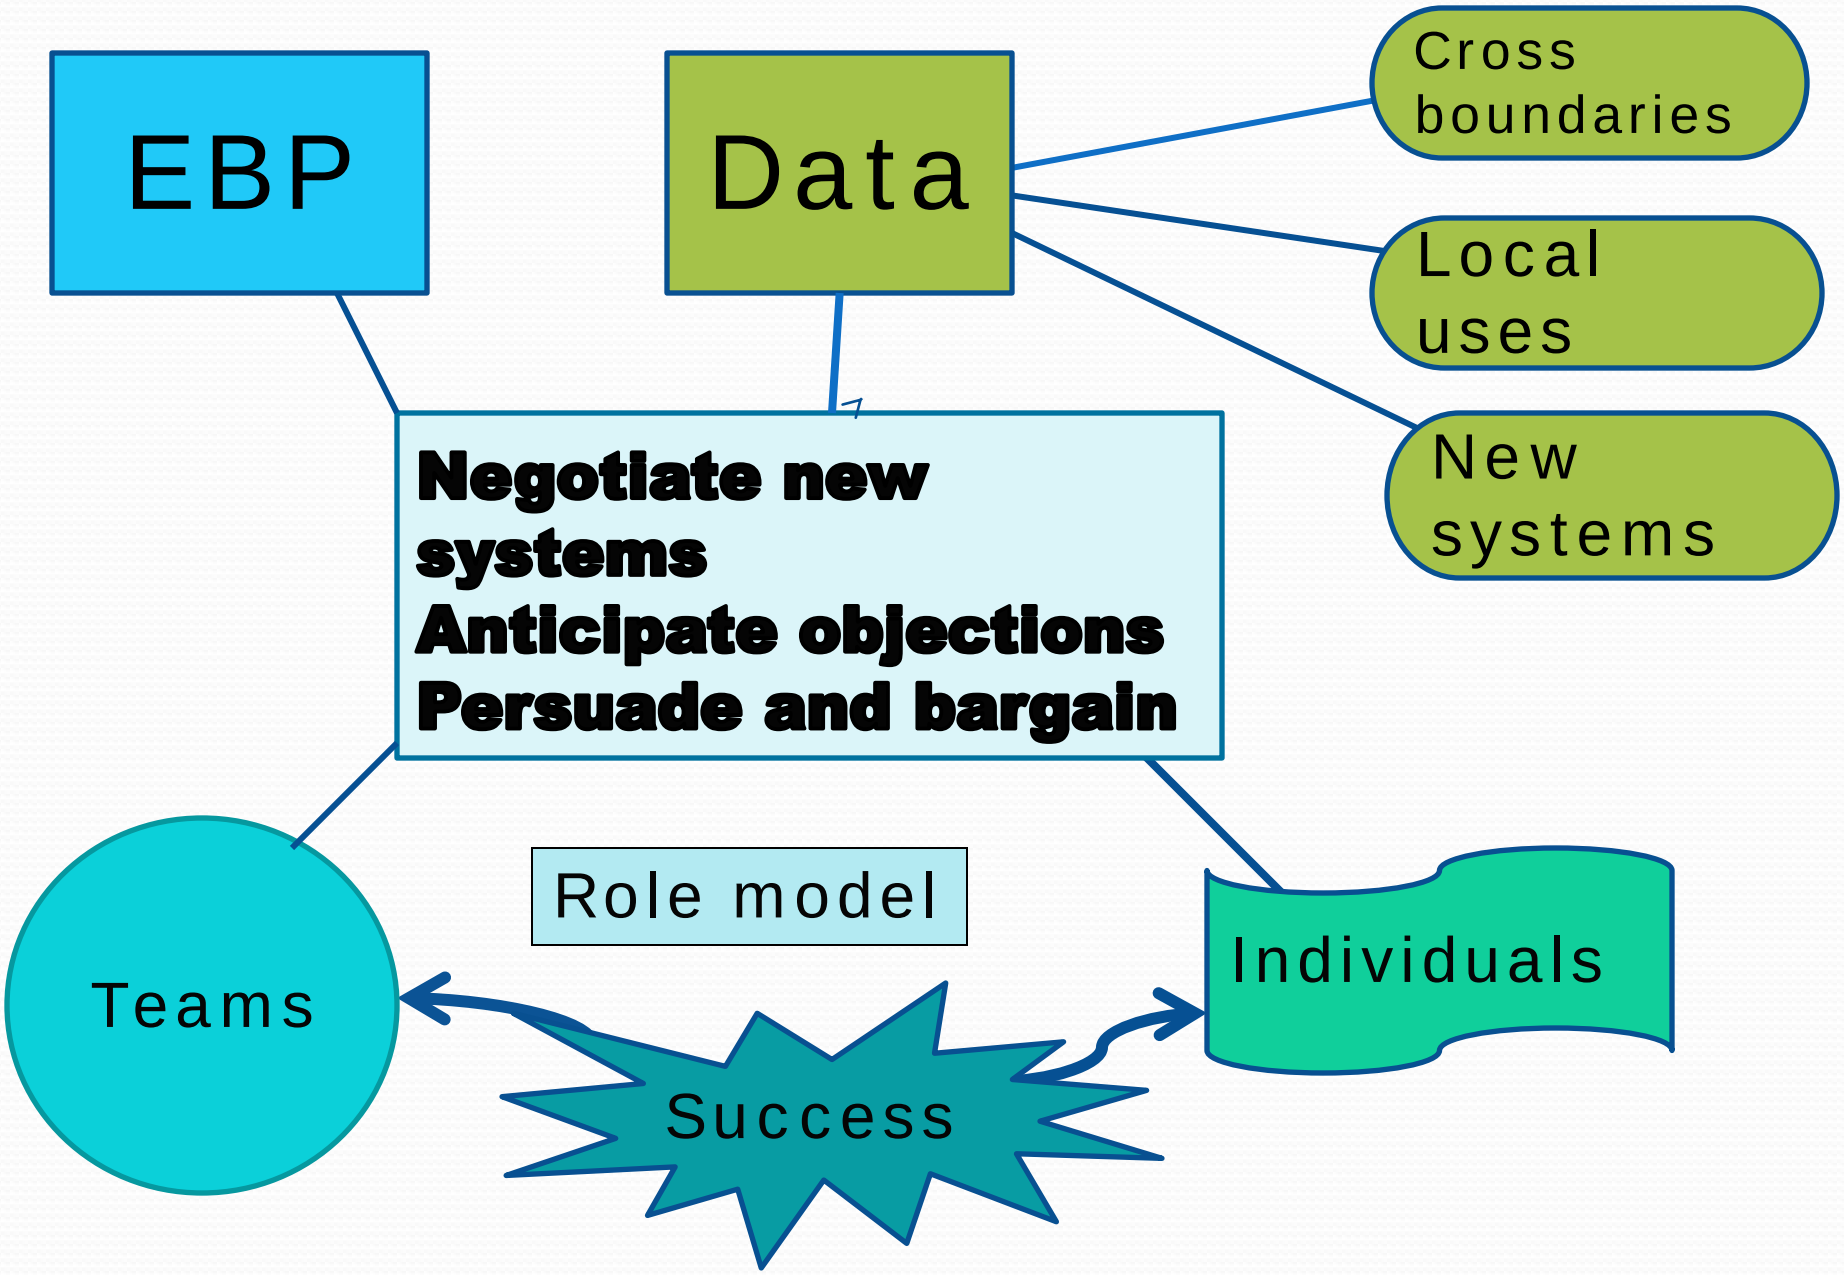




EBP
Data
Cross boundaries
Local uses
New systems



EBP
Data
Cross boundaries
Local uses
New systems
Negotiate new systems
Anticipate objections
Persuade and bargain
Teams
Individuals



EBP
Data
Cross boundaries
Local uses
New systems
Negotiate new systems
Anticipate objections
Persuade and bargain
Role model
Teams
Individuals
Success

Conclusion

- Specific skills and knowledge to effect a change in primary care in the UK
- It takes time and is complex- not linear
- Acknowledge and develop leader-educator skills will help with implementation of ebhc

PENINSULA
MEDICAL SCHOOL
UNIVERSITIES OF EXETER & PLYMOUTH